

This is the first of a short series on the supremacy of Christ. What we believe about God is the most important thing about us and the same can be said about our view of Jesus. We will only ever be effective and successful disciples as a result of having a biblical view of Jesus.

In this first session we looked at Colossians 1:15-20, which is thought to have been a hymn sung in the early church. It is one of many passages in the New Testament where the apostles encourage believers to embrace a proper understanding of our Lord and Saviour. It is packed with astonishing facets, a kaleidoscope of revelation, regarding the majestic, glorious, all-powerful, pre-eminent, incomparable, unparalleled, unmatched and unequalled King of heaven and Saviour of the World.

We were encouraged to fix our eyes upon Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith. Let's put this into practice this week and meditate on the truths in this passage.
