

Charles Spurgeon once said 'May gratitude to God permeate my entire life'. Yesterday morning we looked at how Noah gave thanks and gratitude to God after trusting him and his plan of salvation for him and his family. We were challenged on how we should all be grateful to God for all that he has done, all that he is doing and all that he is going to do in our lives. Not only that but we were also reminded to give thanks to God for who he is and that it is always good to dwell upon the character of God.

We don't want to be like the nine lepers who didn't come back to Jesus to say thank you for healing them.

We want to be like Noah who made it his first priority before anything else to give thanks to God by offering up sacrifices.

What about you? Have you been giving thanks to God recently? 1 Thes 5:16-18 says be joyful always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances!

Why not start this week letting gratitude to God permeate your entire life!
